DEMOCRATS GAIN IN CONGRESSMEN

WILL CONTROL NEXT NATIONAL HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

CHAMP CLARK UNDOUBTEDLY SPEAKER

Republicans in Washington Predict Deadlock Between Senate and Lower Body in Vital Measures.

Ohio.—Governor Harmon (Dem.) re-elected governor by increased plurality. New York.—John A. Dix (Dem.) elected governor of New York by a plurality estimated at 70,000. Entire state ticket also elected.

Florida.—All Democratic nominees of the state ticket elected.

Alabama.—Emmett O. Neal elected governor by about 40,000 majority.

Mississippi.—All Democratic congressional nominees in the state elected.

Texas.—The entire Democratic state and congressional tickets elected.

Rhode Island.—Governor Pether (Rep.) candidate for re-election, is slightly in the lead over L. A. Waterman (Dem.), candidate.

Tennessee.—The fusion candidate, Ben W. Hoover, is apparently elected by 15,000 plurality.

Wisconsin.—Democrats claim the election of Claude R. Porter for governor.

Connecticut.—Judge Simon E. Baldwin (Dem.) is elected governor over Charles A. Goodwin (Rep.), by about 4,000 plurality.

New Hampshire.—Robert P. Bass (Rep.) candidate for governor, is leading Charles E. Carr (Dem.), candidate, by about 5,000 plurality.

Trenton, N. J.—Woodrow Wilson (Dem.) elected governor of New Jersey. Legislature probably Democratic.

Indiana.—Indiana Democrats elect entire state ticket. Beveridge defeated.

Wisconsin.—E. McGovern (Rep.) elected governor.

Kansas.—Walter R. Stubbs (Rep.) elected governor.

Pennsylvania.—Republicans claim John K. Tener election, although Berry, Keystone party man, is making gains.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The house of representatives in the Sixty-second congress will be Democratic. In the present election the Democrats made sufficient gains to wrest control from the Republicans. Champ Clark will undoubtedly be speaker of the next house.

Clark falls heir to the place through having been door leader of the minority in past congresses. Canon and Cannonism pass into oblivion. Clark and his associates get a chance to carry out the many promises they have made on the floor of the house in the past.

Republicans here say that chaos will result from the turning over of the house to the Democrats. They say that whatever legislation the house expects will be fought to death in the senate. They do not expect President Taft to be in sympathy with the radicalism which it is supposed the Democrats will show.

Result Not a Surprise. The result of the Congressional election was no great surprise to the Republicans, despite the pre-election claims made. It has been conceded all along that the Democrats have never stood a better chance to gain control of the house than they stood this fall.

The Democrats merely say that their predictions, made for more than a year here and elsewhere, have been fulfilled. If Clark is elected speaker, one result, his friends say, will be to shove him into the limelight as a presidential possibility.

It is expected that Clark will conduct himself a speaker in such way as to give his boom impetus. His friends have long understood that he held the White House as his ultimate goal.

Undoubtedly his name will go before the next Democratic national convention. The Democrats have their legislative program ready even now for the next congress. Believing they would control the house they have been at work on it for a year.

"Only" will be the battle cry. Clark said last year on the floor of the house that he agreed with Senator Aldrich that millions could be saved in the government's expenditures. He declared that, if elected speaker, he would see to it that he lay in his power, that these millions were saved.

WOODROW WILSON

Being elected governor over Vivian M. Lewis, his Republican opponent, by a plurality that may reach 30,000. Except in Mr. Lewis' own county the Democratic candidate made gains in every county in the state and all indications point to a legislature that will be Democratic on the joint ballot and name a Democrat as the successor of United States Senator John Keim, whose term expires in 1911.

North Dakota. Fargo.—North Dakota has elected a Republican legislature. This insures the re-election of McCumber to the United States senate and the election of Congressman Green to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Johnson. Both Republican candidates for congress have won.
